"It has cured others and will cure you" is true only of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The motto suits the medicine and the medicine the motto. What better assurance could you have that a remedy will cure you, than the fact that it has cured such multitudes of others?

DIED IN OHIO. Mrs. Oella Shupp Buchanan Called to Her Eternal Home.

Mrs. Samuel Shupp received sad news in a telegram to-day from Zanesville, O., sent by a friend of the family, Judge Foley, announcing the death of his daughter, Mrs. Oella Shupp Buchanan, who passed away at 9:30 o'clock this morning, aged 34 years. Mrs. Buchanan had been in poor health for a period of three years, from a complication of diseases which baffled the treatment of the best physicians. Her death has been expected for a year. Her mother, Mrs. Shupp, was with her during her last illness, as was also her sister, Alice.

The deceased was born in Decatur, and was reared here. She grew to womanhood in her native city, graduating from the Decatur High School in the class of 1875. Sept. 4, 1884, she was united in marriage to E. H. Buchanan, who was then a leading stock man in Texas, where the deceased resided for four years. Mrs. Buchanan is now moving to Zanesville, Ohio, to engage in business. He is the proprietor of a large meat market and deals extensively in stock. There are no children.

The immediate relatives of Mrs. Buchanan are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Shupp, this city, her uncle D. A. Maffi, the ice dealer, and her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Oline, of Kenney, Ill.

The many school and social friends of Mrs. Buchanan will remember her friendly nature and her amiability when as a school girl and a young lady she was in our midst, full of life and hope and good cheer for all who enjoyed her acquaintance. She was but two years old when her father went to the war in the 116th regiment, and when he returned a veteran she was five years old; and was old enough to know when he was absent. She was a true and noble woman, whose brief span of life has been spent in making her friends and her home happy. She bore her affliction with Christian fortitude and was ready for the summons. Her scores of Decatur friends will be shocked to learn of her death.

Possibly the remains will be brought to Decatur for interment. Definite information will not be available until to-morrow.

THE JURY IN SESSION.
Further Consideration of the Bush Lynching Case at the Court House.

Pursuant to adjournment Friday afternoon, the grand jury met in the supervisors' room in the court house this afternoon, Foreman Farris presiding. Several witnesses will probably testify this afternoon. There will be no report to the court by the jury to-day.

Judge Vail will not be on the bench until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. Possibly the jury will take another vote on the question of agreeing upon indicting certain parties. Previous ballots are said to have been 15 to 8 and 13 to 10 against indictments. The present sentiment of the jury cannot be stated. It will not be known until a rising vote is taken.

Gone to the Fair.
Misses Nellie Hubbard, Irene Nims, Minnie Davis, Laura Ebert, Daisy Athons, Lydia Newman, Miss Ingram and Mrs. Davis left this morning for a tour to ten days' visit to the World's Fair. In the company are some of the young ladies who had an unprofitable experience with a snide World's Fair hotel that took their money, then conveniently broke up, and finally sent for their certificates ostensibly for the purpose of making certain transfers and endorsements and never returned them. They will stop at the Duff Hotel, Camp Isabella.

Republican Victory.
For the first time in four years Milwaukee, Wis., will have a Republican mayor, W. Wesley Taylor. The Republicans were sweeping victory in the special election, John O. Koeh receiving 3,588 majority over Garrett Dunck, the Democratic nominee. Mr. Koeh's election means almost beyond doubt that he will be the Republican nominee for governor in 1906. The Democrats are discouraged to-night, for in Saturday's defeat they foretold defeat not only in the local election but in the state election to follow.

Three Trains Ran Over Barnest.
George Barnett and John Bartlett were run over by the Washburn cannon ball one mile east of Summit Sunday morning. Barnett was instantly killed, and Bartlett was so severely injured that he will die. Barnett's body was literally torn to pieces and was scattered along the road, three trains having passed over it before it was discovered. The men had been to Bennett and had been drinking. When they arrived at the crossing they got down and it is thought fell asleep.

"Post-Dispatch" Special.
The St. Louis Post-Dispatch special vestibular train, containing about 90 passengers, among them representatives of the St. Louis press, passed through Decatur to-day en route to the World's Fair. The party stopped at the Central House for dinner. The train consisted of six coaches. Engineer McTaggart with engine 143 took the train at 11 o'clock.

RIVERSIDE PARK AMUSEMENTS. Special Attractions at the Theatre all This Week—Ladies Night To-Night.

The past week the popular theatrical managers Messrs. Simmons and Jackson have scored a great "hit" at Riverside Park Summer Theatre. The immense crowds in attendance every night is the biggest endorsement the splendid attractions could receive. And the coming week the management promises the best entertainment ever seen in the city at the prices. They will present the great Metropolitan Musical and Specialty company, supported by that eminent young comedian Mr. James Green who delighted Decatur audiences last winter in "Ali Baba." He is supported by Mr. Billy McIntyre of musical fame, and Messrs. Lope Woodson and Frank Clark; and Misses. Inez Pearl, Edith Rice, Maud Lorenson and Lilly Durham. To-night they will produce the laughable comedy, "Jeremia," in which they will show many high class and pleasing specialties. The admission for each performance will be 10, 20, and 30 cents. Everyone buying one reserve 30 cent ticket will be entitled to one ladies reserve seat free.

ILLINOIS APPOINTMENTS. The Chicago Postoffice Fight and the Springfield Collectorship.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—If the appointment of a postmaster for Chicago were to be made in the next few days there is not the slightest doubt that W. J. Mize, ex-secretary of the Democratic state committee of Illinois, would be chosen. But President Cleveland decided to postpone the Chicago appointments for a while yet and in the meantime complications may arise which would make it impracticable to appoint Mr. Mize. At present he is in the very high favor and President Cleveland is disposed to appoint him. Frank Lawler has not yet reached Washington, although he has written to a friend here that he is coming.

The internal revenue collectorship in the eighth district of Illinois, which has provoked such an interesting scramble among Democratic politicians, will not be settled until Congressman Springer arrives here. Mr. Springer has a candidate for the place in the person of Harry Hickox of Springfield and desires to be heard. The race seems to lie between Mr. Hickox and ex-Congressman Scott of Bloomington.

No Extenuating Circumstances.
St. Louis Post-Dispatch, June 25.
The refusal of the Mason county (Ill.) grand jury to indict the lynchers who hanged the negro Sam Bush a few weeks ago places that community in a bad light. The people of Illinois have been noted for their law-abiding qualities and their devotion to public order. The state is thickly settled, the police and the courts efficient and all the conditions are favorable to a prompt and thorough execution of the laws. Every protection known to civilization is thrown around the citizen and when a wrong is done punishment is certain. And yet such a law was subverted for the ordinary procedure of justice. Judge Lynch has assumed jurisdiction and the regular constituted authorities abdicate in his favor.

Mob law, swift, irregular, impulsive and pitiless, may be explained, though not approved, in communities where courts cannot be depended upon to do justice and where circumstances conspire to aid criminals in committing offenses against the person and then help him to escape. But the people of Illinois cannot enter any such plea in extenuation. The murder of Sam Bush was coolly calculated, deliberately arranged and carried out in the heart of a large town and in presence of the officers whose duty the lynchers usurped. The hanging was a plain violation of law for which there is no excuse, and if the case is suffered to drop the reputation of the State will suffer from a stigma which cannot soon be obliterated.

Judge Vail should be sustained by the whole community in his determination to obtain an indictment and trial. The people of Decatur and Mason County in particular cannot afford to let the matter drop.

Small Attendance on Sunday.
CHICAGO, June 25.—The radical Sunday opening must have been grievously disappointed at the small number of people who visited the World's fair yesterday. The total admissions, free and paid, was scarcely 80,000, and the white city had a quiet, deserted appearance.

The fine arts building was about the only place in all the great exposition where there was anything like a crowd. The attendance at the religious exercises in the festival hall, where Rev. Dr. Thomas preached, was not as large as anticipated, bare half the seats being occupied.

The statue of Hon. William E. Gladstone was unveiled in Donegal Castle at Mrs. Ernest Hart's Irish village to-day. The castle was filled with a distinguished company of visitors. Mayor Harrison opened the ceremonies with an address extolling Gladstone. Mrs. Hart then unveiled the statue amid cheers. The statue is ten feet high and represents the grand old man in the act of speaking. Arthur Bruce Day, who made the famous London statue after which this was copied, then spoke. Judge Moran was next presented and paid a tribute to the statesman. The ceremony was the nineteenth century. Mrs. Geneva Johnston Bishop sang "Come Back to Erin," and the exercises closed by Dr. Hart's address. A sketch of Mrs. Hart's work among the Irish peasants.

MEET BY CHANCE.
The Widows of the Conquered and Conqueror Meet and Shake Hands.
WEST POINT, N. Y., June 25.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis accompanied by her maid arrived here yesterday afternoon on board the steamboat Mary Powell. She was met at the landing by E. G. Murnan, the manager of Cranston's hotel, and escorted to her carriage and conveyed to the hotel. Mrs. Davis was assigned a suite of rooms on the first floor, nearly opposite those occupied by Mrs. U. S. Grant.

Mrs. U. S. Grant has been at Cranston's hotel for several weeks. As soon as Mrs. Grant arrived at the hotel, Mrs. Davis arrived she left her room, and stepping out into the hall met Mrs. Davis just as the latter was leaving the elevator. Mrs. Grant grasped her hand and said with good feeling: "It is very glad to see you." The two ladies then went into Mrs. Davis' apartments and had a long talk.

The Bonanza Afloat.
LINCOLN, Neb., June 25.—Bishop Bonanza has recalled his order dismissing Father Loughran, rector of the local parish, and a meeting of leading Catholics was called for yesterday to protest against the removal of Loughran. Both bishop and priest insist that undue publicity was given the matter, and the trouble between them was one of opinion. The priest says that he, bishop Satholi, is claimed, had much to do with the sudden change in affairs.

Destructive Fire.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 25.—The Bidwell rendering works, the Bassett plow works, the Bassett planing mill and the sheds of the Heavy Iron Cut Stone Co. were totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon, and the handsome private stables of J. F. Menage and J. S. Blake badly damaged. The fire originated from one of the greases on the rendering works. The total loss is $45,000.

A Goodly Fire.
DEADWOOD, S. D., June 25.—A fire which broke out in a pile of cordwood, containing 100,000 cords, caused a total loss of $600,000 to the Homestead and Associated Mining companies. One thousand men are fighting the flames, and all the mines and mills of the company are shut down.

Two Men Drowned.
CHICAGO, June 25.—Ole and Simpson and Peter Johnson were drowned in Lake Michigan, opposite the World's fair grounds, yesterday morning. They had started in a small boat for Michigam City, and when about one mile out the boat capsized and the men were drowned.

A Sad Accident.
DENVER, Col., June 25.—White H. T. Harris, his wife and child and a young man named Tinker were out riding near Del Norte, yesterday, the team became unmanageable and the four were thrown into the water. The woman and child were drowned, while the men had narrow escapes.
